

OUR POLICY of QUALITY and FOOD SAFETY

Our company carries on business in the field of PVC STRETCH FILM and SHRINK FILM by conducting a policy for offering better services while preserving the foothold gained in global markets and quality, branding, diversifying our production within our scope of activity and by being specialized in this field.

On the basis of increasing and maintaining our competitiveness,; respecting below principles during our activities, monitoring the results and continuous improvement constitute the key elements of our quality policy.

- Following closely the developments in the sector,
  - Increasing our production capacity, efficiency and product range,
  - Ensuring the first production and its continuity so that our processes and products meet the quality and legal requirements,
  - Ensuring that our products are produced, stored and dispatched in compliance with food safety requirements,
- Creating environmentally friendly and compliant processes at each step of our production,
- Establishing competitive price policies with respect to price-quality balance,
  - Bringing fast and solutions by taking account the feedback of our customers ; and thus, maintaining and improving customer satisfaction,
- Improving the knowledge, skills and experience of our employees,
  - Besides procuring the satisfaction of our external customers, meeting also the satisfaction of our employees, which are indeed our internal customers, by providing them proper working environment and working conditions in conformance with occupational health and safety requirements.

PRO-PACK INC.